

International Fund Services & Asset Management S.A.

Based in Luxembourg and regulated by the CSSF, our company is one of the leading independent fund trading platforms in Europe. As a pure B2B-fund service platform, we offer client-tailored services to institutional clients. Highest technology-standards as well as maximum flexibility and individuality in performing our services paired with a unique form of personal advice and client care is the philosophy behind our organization.

Investment Analyst (m/f)

Key responsibilities:

- Creation of research analysis reports on funds using Morningstar Direct and other data sources
- Research and creation of a newsletter outlining new additions to the master list as well as offering market insights
- Provide proactive service and support to our institutional clients
- Maintenance of the ifsam research online portal
- Meetings with sales and fund managers as well as attending presentations
- Point of contact for asset managers and maintenance of existing distribution agreements
- Engage with asset managers to implement new distribution agreements and negotiate terms
- Close cooperation with administration teams
- Respond to internal and external inquiries

Your profile:

- Advanced finance degree (CFA, CAIA, CIIA or similar) will be considered an advantage
- Attention to detail and constant focus on quality and client service
- Strong interpersonal skills with flexibility to work independently
- Good written and oral communication skills
- Fluency in English is an essential requirement, German (corporate language) will be considered an advantage
- Profound knowledge of the fund industry with a professional experience of at least three years
- Experience in hedge/alternative fund business will be considered as an added value
- Knowledge of Morningstar Direct, Bloomberg, Telekurs iD is essential
- Advanced level in MS Office tools
- You are proactive, a team player and client-driven

If this opportunity is the challenge you are seeking, please send your motivation letter together with your CV to hr@ifsam.lu.